AUTOMOBILES PAINTED BY PUNKS . . .

IN THE VALLEY OF THE MOON

Well. . . Well. . . Well. . . Another reason why Boyes Hot Springs should incorporate and have their own Police Dept. . . .

For sometime now, all the "Punks" in the area have been using the front of the Boyes Hot Springs Post Office for a meeting place during weekends. . . Leaving broken beer bottles and cans all over the street. . .

Last Friday night they figured out some more destruction. . .

As people would park their automobiles to enter the Post Office the "Punks" would spray the automobiles with paint, which would call for a complete new paint job if not noticed within a few minutes and removed. . .

So if you find spots of paint on your automobile this might be the answer as to where it came from. . .

If you should be a victim, advise the Sonoma County Sheriff's Office as your bit of information might be the key of putting a stop to this destruction. . .

So let's incorporate and form our own Police Protection and clean up this mess before it gets out of hand. . .

Thank you,
The Publisher

MRS. PARISH AND HER GUIDE DOG "NORVA"

Mrs. Parish, 77, of San Francisco claims to be the oldest woman in the world using a Guide Dog. Mrs. Parish says, "I'm lucky, I could see during my first 45 years and know all about the wonders of nature. Then, when God took my sight, he gave me a Guide Dog."

Mrs. Parish, graduated on April 4th with "Norva" a Golden Retriever from the school of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., at San Rafael.

"Norva" takes the place of her Boxer "Cindy" which died in January after many years of faithful service.

No charge is made to the blind for the training, as Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. is supported by contributions. . Mail check today.
